

Kombert Caterers

Kombert Caterers history on Long Island began in 1952 at the Lincoln Hotel in Long Beach. In 1955 Erwin Kombert joined the Atlantic Beach Hotel as Chairman where he stayed for 14 years. It wasn't until 1969 that Erwin moved to the Oceanside Country Club introducing Kenny to the family business. In 1979 Kenny came on board and from there he and Erwin transformed Kombert Catering into the unique experience it is today. For the past 21 years Kombert Caterers has been continuing the tradition of catering at Temple Avodah in Oceanside. With a unique and unforgettable style which is often copied but never perfected, Kombert Caterers strives for excellence beyond expectations. We are proud to have been granted awards for outstanding catering on Long Island and continue to receive 5 star reviews. With our innovative menus, cocktail stations and more, you can guarantee a catered event unlike any other. "At Kombert Caterer's we strive for the unexpected, never settling for the accepted."
