OPERATING AS USUAL

The Three Broomsticks, modeled after the infamous tavern located in Hogsmeade seen in many of the Harry Potter books, was founded in 2013 right in the heart of central London, England. We serve traditional English food with a magical spin on it, featuring many dishes from the Harry Potter series. This family friendly tavern is neighboring Kings Cross Station, which was featured in the Harry Potter series on many occasions. Kings Cross is centrally located in London, making The Three Broomsticks excellently available to both tourists and locals. 15% of the Three Broomsticks' income goes to Lumos, a charity created by J.K. Rowling to promote families around the world.
